

Oh, The Places You Will Go with a Good Book!

Books can take us to all sorts of places, so open a book and travel the world. The Meadowview Summer Reading challenge has begun. Have your student choose 2 reading activities from each row. Use the stickers to mark your choice. Finish reading by the end of summer break and bring this sheet to your new teacher by Friday, Aug. 25th. Participants are invited to be the first to check out books for the 2017-18 school year and to participate in a book sharing reception during on Friday, Aug. 25th.

Student Name _____

New Teacher _____

Free Choice!	Read a book from the library.	Read a book by Dr. Seuss.	Read a book about a REAL place.	Read to a family member!
Read a book To someone you know.	Free Choice!	Read a book that takes you someplace magical.	Read a book at night with a flashlight	Read a Chapter book.
Go on an adventure with a book or series	Read a Monarch or Bluestem medal winner or nominee.		Read a under a tree	Read a book from the library.
Read a Caldecott Winner.	Read a Chapter book.	Read a book outside	Free Choice!	Read a book that takes you to another country
Read a book from the library.	Read something nonfiction	Read a book That takes you back in time	Read a Geisel Award winner	Free Choice!